2011 AMERICAN LEAGUE CENTRAL DIVISION CHAMPIONS

The Detroit Tigers enjoyed a banner year in 2011 as Manager Jim Leyland guided the team to a 95-67 record to earn the club's first-ever American League Central Division title and the first overall division crown since winning the American League East Division in 1987. The Tigers success continued into October as the Tigers defeated the New York Yankees in five games in the American League Division Series before eventually losing to the Texas Rangers in six games in the American League Championship Series.

The Tigers banner year was keyed by one of the greatest individual performances by a player in franchise history. Justin Verlander posted a 24-5 record, 2.40 ERA and 250 strikeouts and was named the American League Cy Young Award winner and Most Valuable Player by the Baseball Writers Association of America. He is the first Tigers player to win both honors since Guillermo Hernandez in 1984. He was the first pitcher in baseball to win both awards since Oakland's Dennis Eckersley in 1992 and the first starting pitcher since Boston's Roger Clemens in 1986.

Verlander led the American League with 24 wins, a 2.40 ERA and 250 strikeouts to become the second pitcher in franchise history to win the triple crown, joining Hall of Famer Hal Newhouser, who accomplished the feat in 1945. In addition to leading the league in the triple crown categories, Verlander also led the league with an .828 winning percentage, 251.0 innings pitched, a .192 batting average against, 6.24 hits per nine innings and 8.39 baserunners per nine innings.

Verlander also tossed the second no-hitter of his career on May 7 at Toronto and was named to the all-star team for the fourth time in his career.

Joining Verlander on the all-star squad was teammate Miguel Cabrera, who also put together an MVP-caliber season. The slugging first baseman batted .344 to win the first batting title of his major league career. He led the major leagues with a .448 on-base percentage while becoming just the fifth player in franchise history to score 100 runs, drive in 100 runs and walk 100 times in the same season. Cabrera led the team with 111 runs scored, 197 hits, 48 doubles, 30 home runs, 105 RBI and 108 walks.

Cabrera heated up as the Tigers pulled away in the division race, batting .408 with 23 doubles, eight home runs and 37 RBI over the final two months of the season. He continued his hot hitting in the post-season, batting .314 with four doubles, four home runs and 10 RBI in 11 games during October. He also walked 12 times during the post-season and led the majors with a .489 on-base percentage.

Closer Jose Valverde was also named to the all-star team in 2011 as he established career highs with 75 appearances, 49 saves and 72.1 innings pitched. He led the American League with 75 appearances and 49 saves and brought home hardware following the season as he was named Major League Baseball Delivery Man of the Year. Valverde was a perfect 49-for-49 in save appearances, setting a new club record for saves in a season and consecutive saves.

In addition to setting the club record for consecutive saves in a season, he became only the third pitcher in major league history to be perfect in all of his save chances during a single season while posting 40-or-more saves. He joined Eric Gagne with 55 consecutive saves for the 2003 Los Angeles Dodgers and Brad Lidge with 41 consecutive saves for the 2008 Philadelphia Phillies.

Rounding out the Tigers five all-stars were both Jhonny Peralta and Alex Avila. Peralta was named to the all-star team for the first time in his career and ranked among the top offensive shortstops in the American League, finishing second with a .299 batting average and 84 RBI when playing the position in 2011. The all-star selection was also a first for Avila, who was voted to start behind the plate for the American League, becoming the first Tigers catcher to start the all-star game since Ivan Rodriguez in 2007. Avila emerged as one of the top catchers in the league, earning Silver Slugger honors after leading all American League catchers with a .292 batting average, 130 hits, 32 doubles, 77 RBI and a .507 slugging percentage while catching.

Another key to the Tigers offensive attack in 2011 was designated hitter Victor Martinez. The switch-hitter batted .330 with 40 doubles, 12 home runs and 103 RBI in his first season with the Tigers. He finished fourth in the American League with the .330 batting average, while ranking 10th with 103 RBI. Additionally, Martinez topped the American League with a .394 batting average with runners in scoring position.

The Tigers also added two key players down the stretch who filled a big role in the playoff push. Righthander Doug Fister was acquired from the Seattle Mariners on July 30 and excelled in his first action with the Tigers. He posted an 8-1 record and 1.79 ERA in 11 games with the Tigers and earned the victory in the division-clinching win over the Oakland Athletics on September 16, limiting the Athletics to one run on three hits over eight innings. Fister was also on the hill for the Tigers in the deciding Game Five of the American League Division Series against New York at Yankee Stadium. He limited the Yankees to one run on five hits in five innings to earn his first post-season victory.

Outfielder Delmon Young was acquired from the Minnesota Twins on August 15 and plugged into the lineup as the Tigers everyday left fielder. Young batted .274 with eight home runs and 32 RBI in 40 games down the stretch with the Tigers. He also matched a club record with five home runs during the post-season, including a key home run in the decisive Game Five victory over New York at Yankee Stadium.

VERLANDER NAMED AMERICAN LEAGUE MOST VALUABLE PLAYER AND CY YOUNG AWARD WINNER

Justin Verlander completed one of the greatest seasons in franchise history in 2011, posting a 24-5 record, 2.40 ERA and 250 strikeouts to lead the American League in all three categories and he was named the American League Cy Young Award winner and Most Valuable Player by the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Verlander became the third pitcher in franchise history to win the Cy Young Award and the seventh player to earn Most Valuable Player honors. He joined Denny McLain and Guillermo Hernandez as the only pitchers in franchise history to win both awards in the same season. Additionally, he became the first American League pitcher to earn Most Valuable Player honors since Oakland's Dennis Eckersley in 1992 and the first starting pitcher since Boston's Roger Clemens in 1986.

By winning the Cy Young Award and Most Valuable Player in 2011 and the American League Rookie of the Year in 2006, Verlander became just the second player in major league history to win the Rookie of the Year, Cy Young Award and Most Valuable Player. He joined Don Newcombe, who accomplished the feat by winning National League Rookie of the Year honors in 1949 and the Cy Young Award and National League Most Valuable Player in 1956 with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Verlander also became just the second Tigers pitcher to earn triple crown honors, joining Hal Newhouser who topped the league in wins, ERA and strikeouts in 1945. He also became the first American League pitcher to win the triple crown since Minnesota's Johan Santana in 2006. In addition to wins, ERA and strikeouts, Verlander also led the league with an .828 winning percentage, 251.0 innings pitched, a .192 batting average against, 6.24 hits per nine innings and 8.39 baserunners per nine innings. He tied for the lead with 34 games started, finished third with 9.0 strikeouts per nine innings and 4.39 strikeouts per walk, tied for fourth with four complete games, tied for fifth with two shutouts and tied for seventh with 2.0 walks per nine innings.

The righthander further etched his name into the record books on May 7 at Toronto when he tossed the second no-hitter of his career, allowing just one walk in a 9-0 victory over the Blue Jays. He became the second pitcher in franchise history to toss two career no-hitters, joining Virgil Trucks who fired two no-hitters during the 1952 season. According to STATS LLC, he became the 27th pitcher to record two career no-hitters in the American or National League.

Verlander made nearly a clean sweep of the post-season awards, earning American League Pitcher of the Year and Major League Player of the Year honors from The Sporting News, while also earning American League Outstanding Pitcher and Major League Player of the Year honors from his peers in the Major League Baseball Players Choice Awards.

Cochrane Becomes First Tigers Most Valuable Player

Hall of Fame catcher Mickey Cochrane joined the Tigers in 1934 as a player-manager after nine seasons with the Philadelphia Athletics. He was known as a natural leader on the field and came to the Tigers with a Most Valuable Player Award on his resume, having won the award in 1928 with the Athletics.

He made an immediate impact on the Tigers, guiding the club to a 101-53 record and a berth in the World Series for the first time since 1909. He batted .320 with 32 doubles, two home runs and 76 RBI to become the first player in franchise history to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

The Most Valuable Player voting in 1934 was dominated by the Tigers. Second baseman Charlie Gehringer trailed Cochrane by two points in the voting and finished second, while pitcher Schoolboy Rowe finished fourth, first baseman Hank Greenberg finished sixth and third baseman Marv Owen finished ninth. Cochrane remains the only catcher in club history to win the Most Valuable Player Award.

Greenberg Wins Two Most Valuable Player Awards

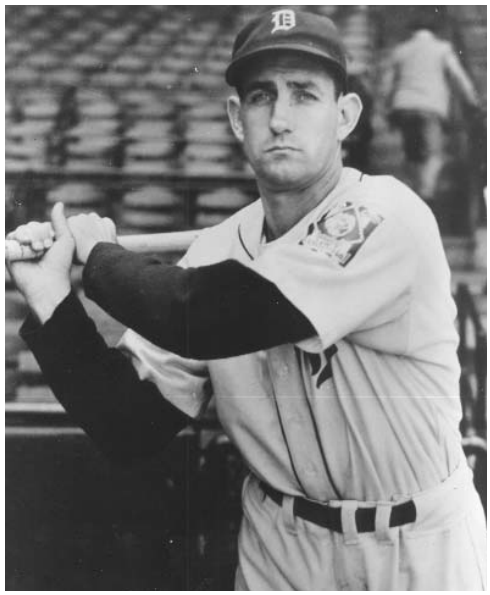

On the heels of Cochrane's 1934 Most Valuable Player Award, Hall of Fame first baseman Hank Greenberg put together a monstrous 1935 season where he batted .328 with 46 doubles, 16 triples, 36 home runs and 170 RBI to earn his first career Most Valuable Player Award. Greenberg led the league with his 36 home runs, 170 RBI, 389 total bases and 98 extra-base hits.

Like Cochrane, Greenberg's performance helped lead the Tigers to the World Series, but this time around the Tigers defeated the Chicago Cubs in six games to earn the club's first-ever World Series title. Greenberg was limited to two games during the series due to a broken wrist suffered in Game Two, but still managed to belt a home run and drive in a pair of runs in his six at-bats prior to the injury.

Greenberg earned Most Valuable Player honors again in 1940 after batting .340 with 50 doubles, 41 home runs and 150 RBI. He led the league with 50 doubles, 41 home runs, 150 RBI, 384 total bases, 99 extra-base hits and a .670 slugging percentage, while finishing second with a .433 on-base percentage and fifth with a .340 batting average.

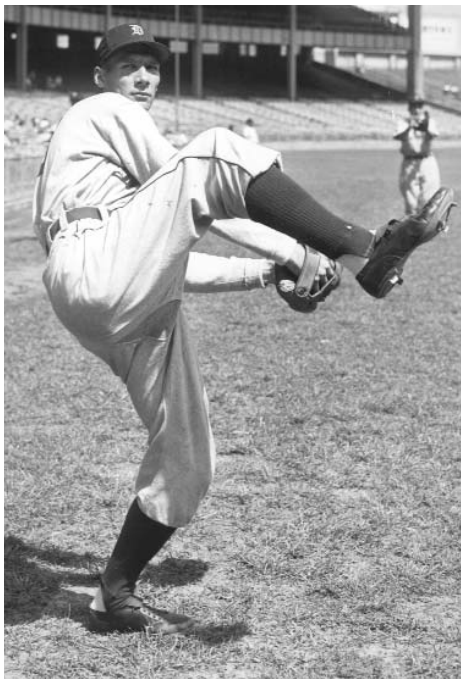

His efforts propelled the Tigers to the World Series, but the club would fall to the Cincinnati Reds in seven games despite his .357 batting average with four extra-base hits and six RBI during the series.

Gehringer Becomes Tigers Third MVP in Four Seasons in 1937

Hall of Fame second baseman Charlie Gehringer became the third Tigers player to win Most Valuable Player honors in a four-season span when he received the award in 1937. Gehringer batted .371 with 40 doubles, a triple, 14 home runs and 96 RBI, establishing career highs with the .371 batting average and a .458 on-base percentage. He won the American League batting title with the .371 batting average, topping New York's Lou Gehrig, who finished second at .351. In addition to his offensive success, Gehringer led all league second basemen with a career-high .986 fielding percentage and finished second in both putouts and assists.

The award came after four consecutive seasons of finishing in the top six in Most Valuable Player voting as he finished second in 1934, fourth in 1936 and sixth in both 1933 and 1935. Gehringer broke through to win the award by edging New York's Joe Dimaggio by just four points in the voting, while teammate Hank Greenberg finished third in his bid to win back-to-back Most Valuable Player Awards.

Newhouser Wins Back-To-Back MVP Awards

The Tigers run of Most Valuable Player Awards continued with Hal Newhouser, who became the first pitcher in franchise history to win the award in 1944. He followed with a second Most Valuable Player honor in 1945, giving Detroit six Most Valuable Player Awards over an 11-season span from 1934-45.

Newhouser posted a 29-9 record and 2.22 ERA during the 1944 season, leading the league with 29 wins and 187 strikeouts. In addition to his Most Valuable Player honor, Newhouser was the inaugural winner of the American League Pitcher of the Year Award from The Sporting News.

Newhouser followed up the 1944 season by winning the American League triple crown with a 25-9 record, 1.81 ERA and 212 strikeouts in 1945. He also led the league that year with 36 games started, 29 complete games, eight shutouts and 313.1 innings pitched. He was also named Major League Player of the Year and American League Pitcher of the Year by The Sporting News.

Newhouser nearly won a third consecutive Most Valuable Player Award in 1946, losing to Boston's Ted Williams by 27 points after posting a 26-9 record and 1.94 ERA. He led the league in both wins and ERA, finishing second in strikeouts to narrowly miss a second consecutive triple crown.

McLain Becomes First Tigers Cy Young Award Winner

The 1968 season was a magical one for the Detroit Tigers and their ace righthander Denny McLain. McLain finished the season with a 31-6 record and 1.96 ERA to become the first major league pitcher to win 30 games since Dizzy Dean posted a 30-6 record for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1934. No pitcher has reached 30 wins since McLain, making him the only pitcher in nearly 80 seasons to accomplish the feat.

In addition to his dominance in the win column, McLain also led the league in winning percentage, games started, complete games and innings pitched in 1968 and was voted both the American League Cy Young Award winner and Most Valuable Player. McLain became the first pitcher in franchise history to win the Cy Young Award and joined Newhouser as the second pitcher to win Most Valuable Player honors.

He followed the 1968 season with a 24-9 record and 2.80 ERA in 1969. He led the league in victories, games started and innings pitched and was voted the American League Cy Young Award winner for the second consecutive season. He remains the only pitcher in franchise history to win multiple Cy Young Awards.

Hernandez Earns Both MVP and Cy Young Honors in 1984

The 1984 season was a memorable one for the Detroit Tigers as the team jumped out to a 35-5 start and rolled to a World Series title. Reliever Guillermo Hernandez was a stopper on the pitching staff, posting a 9-3 record, 1.92 ERA and 32 saves in 80 games out of the bullpen. He converted 32 consecutive saves during the season, a club record that stood until Jose Valverde posted 49 consecutive saves in 2011.

Hernandez led the league in appearances and games finished, while allowing just 96 hits in 140.1 innings out of the bullpen. The 140.1 innings pitched out of the bullpen remains second-most in franchise history by a relief pitcher, trailing 150.0 innings by John Hiller in 1974.

For his efforts, he was voted both the American League Cy Young Award winner and Most Valuable Player. He became the second pitcher in franchise history to earn Cy Young honors and the third pitcher in franchise history to earn Most Valuable Player honors, joining Denny McLain as just the second to earn both the Cy Young Award and Most Valuable Player Award in the same season.

IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

The first major league Detroit franchise, at the time known as the Wolverines, was a member of the National League from 1881 through 1888.

The 1887 Wolverines, led by Hall-of-Famer Dan Brouthers, won the franchise's only National League pennant by three and one-half games over the Philadelphia Phillies. They subsequently engaged the St. Louis Browns, champions of the American Association, in the longest World Series ever. Detroit won 10 of the 15 series games, which were played in 10 different cities over a 16-day period.

Detroit dropped out of the major leagues after the 1888 season, returning as a charter member of the American League in 1901.

ALL-STAR GAME HISTORY

JULY 8, 1941
AMERICAN LEAGUE 7, NATIONAL LEAGUE 5

Detroit hosted the ninth all-star game at Briggs Stadium on July 8, 1941. The game was attended by nearly 55,000 fans and they were rewarded as the American League squad rallied from a 5-2 deficit with one run in the eighth inning and four runs in the ninth to defeat the National League. The comeback was capped by a three-run home run off the facing of the right field roof by Hall-of-Famer Ted Williams. Williams would later characterize the home run as one of the most exciting moments of his career. Arky Vaughan led the National League offense in the loss, becoming the first player in all-star history to hit two home runs in a game while adding a single and four RBI.

Three Tigers players were selected to play in the contest, including first baseman Rudy York, catcher Birdie Tebbetts and righthanded pitcher Al Benton. York was the only Tigers player to appear in the game, finishing 1x3. The American League squad was managed by Tigers skipper Del Baker while Tigers coach Merv Shea served as one of the coaches.

The 1941 All-Star Game also marked the first time brothers had appeared together in a midsummer classic. Joe and Dom DiMaggio both appeared in the game for the American League with Joe finishing 1x4 with three runs scored and an RBI and Dom finishing 1x1 with an RBI.

NATIONAL LEAGUE 8, AMERICAN LEAGUE 3

Briggs Stadium hosted the 18th all-star game on July 10, 1951 as the Midsummer Classic was again played in Detroit. Over 52,000 fans were in attendance and witnessed a home run barrage as the National League squad thumped an all-star record four roundtrippers to defeat the American League 8-3 and claim their second consecutive victory for the first time in all-star history. The American League chipped in two home runs to raise the game total to six, establishing a new all-star record.

Ralph Kiner drilled a two-run homer for the National League in the eighth inning, which made him the only player in history to homer in three consecutive all-star games. Stan Musial also established a new all-star record by being caught stealing twice.

The Tigers were represented by third baseman George Kell, outfielder Vic Wertz and righthanded pitcher Fred Hutchinson. Kell started the game at third base and drilled a solo home run while Wertz started the game in right field and also connected for a solo roundtripper. Hutchinson worked three innings in the loss, allowing three runs on three hits while issuing two walks.

American League 6, National League 4

The all-star game returned to Detroit on July 13, 1971 as the best players in baseball flocked to Tiger Stadium for the 42nd Midsummer Classic. The American League squad hit three home runs to take the 6-4 victory and snap an eight-game losing streak. Reggie Jackson provided the memorable moment when he crushed a Dock Ellis delivery off the light tower in right field for a two-run homer.

The National League hit three home runs as the two teams matched an all-star record with a combined six home runs, all by Hall-of-Fame players (Hank Aaron, Johnny Bench, Roberto Clemente, Jackson, Harmon Killibrew, Frank Robinson).

Frank Robinson was named as the game's most valuable player after finishing the game 1x2 with a home run and two RBI. Robinson's home run made him the first player in all-star history to hit a home run for both the American and National League.

The Tigers were represented by first baseman Norm Cash, catcher Bill Freehan, outfielder Al Kaline and lefthanded pitcher Mickey Lolich. Cash started at first base and finished 0x2, while Freehan started behind the plate and went hitless in three trips to the plate. Kaline entered the game playing right field in the sixth inning and finished the game 1x2 with a run scored. Lolich worked the final two innings, allowing one run on one hit, while striking out one.

- In May of 1937, after homering off the Yankees' Bump Hadley, Cochrane was beaned in the right temple by a Hadley fastball and remained unconscious for 10 days before finally pulling through...although he continued as Tigers manager for part of the following season, he never played again.

Nettie Stearnes and the Stearnes' family, friends and former teammates were tireless in their efforts to have Turkey's accomplishments rightfully recognized with the sport's highest honor. ## SPARKY'S LEGACY HONORED AT COOPERSTOWN

On July 23, 2000, former Tigers manager Sparky Anderson took his place amongst baseball's best as he was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Anderson was voted in during his first year of eligibility for the honor.

Anderson completed his managerial career after the 1995 season with a Tigers-record 1,331 victories. His total record of 2,194-1,834, including nine seasons and two World Championships as manager of the Cincinnati Reds, was good enough for a .545 career winning percentage.

Only the fourth manager in baseball history to manage 4,000 games, Anderson is the only manager to hold the career victory record for two different franchises. Additionally, he was the first manager to lead teams from both leagues to a World Series title and to record 100 victories in one season in both leagues.

The Tigers retired Anderson's number 11 as part of a ceremony on June 26, 2011.

Nelson Santovenia joins the Tigers organization in 2012 to serve as a coach with the Gulf Coast League Tigers. It marks his first professional coaching assignment.

Prior to joining the Tigers organization, he was working in the private sector and coaching at the high school level in Florida. He coached during the 2005 season at Archbishop Carroll High School, before he served as an associate head coach with Archbishop McCarthy High School for six seasons (2006-11). Archbishop McCarthy High School won back-to-back Class 4A State Championships in Florida (2010-11).

Selected by the Montreal Expos in the first round of the June 1982 draft, Santovenia saw action in seven seasons at the major league level as a catcher with the Expos (1987-91), Chicago White Sox (1992) and Kansas City Royals (1993).

HOW THEY BECAME KNOWN AS "TIGERS"

Research reveals the nickname "Tigers" was first applied to the Detroit club in 1895. Baseball historians had long credited Philip J. Reid, city editor of the Detroit Evening News, with first using the name in print in 1896. However, George Stallings, manager of the Detroit team which was then a member of the Western League, took credit for the nickname because he had his players wear black-and-brown striped stockings which, he said, reminded the fans of "tiger stripes."

It appears, though, that it was actually an unidentified headline writer at the Detroit Free Press who originated the Tigers nickname in 1895, a year before Stallings became manager and before the team was wearing striped stockings. Previously, the team had simply been called "Detroit," "the Detroits," sometimes the "Wolverines" and at times the "Creams."

On April 16, 1895, the Free Press printed a headline over a baseball story which read, "Strouthers' Tigers Showed Up Very Nicely." On the same page, a string of baseball notes was headed "Notes of the Detroit Tigers of 1895." Curiously, not once in either story was the word "Tigers" used.

From then on, the Free Press fairly regularly called the club the "Tigers" and in May, 1895, The Sporting Life began using "Tigers" in its dispatches from Detroit. However, up to July 1, 1895, careful research disclosed that neither the Detroit Evening News nor its Sunday paper, the News-Tribune, had ever used "Tigers."

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

Joker Marchant Stadium and TigerTown
Spring Training Home of the Detroit Tigers

The Detroit Tigers return to Spring Training in 2012 for their 76th season in Lakeland and their 47th at Joker Marchant Stadium.

The Tigers first trained in Lakeland in 1934 at Henley Field before moving a mile north to Joker Marchant Stadium in 1966. In January 2001, the Tigers agreed to extend their relationship with Lakeland for 16 additional years.

Marchant Stadium was named in honor of the late Joker Marchant, Lakeland's former parks and recreation director. The all-concrete grandstand of the stadium was built by the City of Lakeland at a cost of $500,000 and originally seated 4,900 spectators. Expansion projects beginning in the early 1970s brought the capacity to 7,100 and the recently completed renovation project upped the capacity to 9,000. Previous renovations have included the addition of lights that allowed the first night game to be played in Lakeland in 1972 and a food and picnic court that was added in 1994 to increase the fan appeal of Joker Marchant Stadium. The recent $11 million renovation project has transformed the park into a state of the art facility that features luxury suites, a second tier concourse level, new seating areas, an outfield seating berm, as well as brand new individual seats with cupholders and improved seating for handicapped fans. The improvements continued to the exterior of the park with the extensive use of Mediterranean style architecture. The press box has been improved and expanded, a new practice field has been added, as well as four new indoor batting cages.

Adjacent to the 12-acre tract on which the stadium is situated is TigerTown, the Tigers minor league training site since 1953. A three-story dormitory provides housing for 190 players and coaches. It was dedicated in 1971 and named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. A new administration building, cafeteria and recreation center were constructed in 1993 to complete the TigerTown renovation.

Several changes were also made to the clubhouse building at Marchant Stadium during the 1997-98 off-season. Three executive offices and a large suite were added to the complex as well as offices for both the home and visiting managers. The locker room and laundry areas were also expanded at that time.

The Tigers have trained exclusively in Lakeland since 1934, except for a three-year wartime sabbatical to Evansville, IN, from 1943-45. The association between the Detroit Tigers and City of Lakeland remains the longest-lasting relationship between a major league baseball team and a current Spring Training host city.

The Tigers all-time record at Marchant Stadium is 364-290-18 and 3,219,767 fans have paid to see Tigers Grapefruit League games since the park opened.

Fetzer Hall and TigerTown Facilities

While the Tigers major league club has trained in Lakeland since 1934, the organization's minor league affiliates have called Lakeland home since 1953. The move to the TigerTown facility in 1953 was aided by the use of barracks that were originally part of the Lodwick School of Aeronautics, a British training school for aviation cadets during World War II. The school closed in August, 1945 and was converted to a city airport, which was later named Lodwick Field. The barracks from the former training school allowed the team to provide room and board for players throughout Spring Training.

The original setup at Lodwick Field boasted four diamonds, a fieldhouse, recreation room and a dining hall, which was said to have served nearly 16,000 meals during Spring Training in 1953. The field provided the club with an all-encompassing facility that could serve the needs of the minor league system during Spring Training. When the facility opened in 1953, the club owned three minor league affiliates and had working agreements with four other clubs. The 1953 Detroit Tigers Press Book stated that 200 rookies would be given the opportunity to display their wares in the first minor league spring training held at what is now the TigerTown complex.

Player housing on site at the TigerTown complex continued in the barracks through the 1970 season, when the club, in conjunction with the City of Lakeland, began construction on Fetzer Hall at a cost of $425,000. Touted as boasting the last word in construction with air conditioning, controlled heating and carpeted rooms, the dormitory was designed to house nearly 200 players and coaches during the baseball season.

The facility was completed during the summer of 1970 and dedicated in 1971. It was named in honor of the late John Fetzer, former owner and president of the Detroit Tigers. The Tigers added an administration building, cafeteria and recreation center in 1993 to expand the TigerTown facility.

Fetzer Hall and the surrounding facilities underwent a $1 million renovation prior to the 2008 season. The renovation upgraded the dormitory rooms, lounge areas, recreational areas and the cafeteria. Each room is equipped with a flat screen television and high-speed Internet access. Lounge areas feature large screen televisions and couches for players to relax.

Each room in Fetzer Hall is named for a different part of Tigers history. Rooms on the first floor are named after Tigers Hall of Fame players. Rooms on the second floor are named after noteworthy Tigers coaches and managers and the third floor rooms are named after different parts of TigerTown history.

What began as simple housing accomodations in former military barracks has given way to a facility that helps provide players with many of the comforts of home while allowing them to stay in close proximity to top notch training facilities. The advancement from Lodwick Field and military barracks to the current TigerTown facility and Fetzer Hall has helped the Tigers maintain one of the top minor league headquarters in baseball.

COMERICA

Comerica Park
Home of the Detroit Tigers

Comerica Park is home to the Detroit Tigers, a charter member of the American League and one of the most storied franchises in the history of Major League Baseball. The opening of the park on April 11, 2000 ushered in a new era of baseball in Detroit that features a multi-faceted fan experience in one of the premier venues in professional sports. Comerica Park was designed with fans in mind and provides a one-of-a-kind experience for fans of all ages.

AN URBAN VILLAGE

Comerica Park is rooted at the center of an urban village that includes shops, restaurants, offices, the neighboring Ford Field, Fox Theatre and other attractions. Buildings of varying sizes and heights make up this village of outbuildings which houses many of the service facilities surrounding the park. Roughly 70,000 square feet of retail space is included and another 36,000 square feet is dedicated to Tigers offices. The result blends into the surrounding street life of Foxtown. Comerica Park provides a beautiful view of the Detroit skyline which is highlighted by the Renaissance Center, Detroit Athletic Club and many Detroit landmarks.

THE CONCOURSES

The concourses are among the most generous of any facility. The minimum width of the main concourse is 40 feet, with wider concourses in many areas. The upper concourse is approximately 34 feet wide. The general standard for concourses in existing ballparks is 32 feet in width. Concourses at old Tiger Stadium were between 17 and 27 feet on the lower level, 11 feet behind the last row of the lower deck and 11 feet in the upper level.

THE WALK OF FAME

Touring the main concourse, fans are taken through time on a tour of baseball and lifestyle history. The concourse is divided into a chronology of Tigers history. Decade monuments covering two decades each are placed along the concourse, towering from floor to ceiling and featuring artifacts from each era.

CONCESSIONS FACILITIES AND FOOD COURT

Typical ballparks have a point of sale (register) for every 200 fans; Comerica Park abbreviates the wait with one point of sale for every 125 fans. Among the many tantalizing food options are the “Brushfire Grill” barbecue area behind third base and the “Big Cat Court” food area behind first base, with a wide range of snacks, sandwiches, frozen treats and other great munchies.

FAMILY ENTERTAINMENT

In the middle of the food court, a merry-go-round is available for the young and young-at-heart, with patrons riding atop tigers instead of horses. Behind the "Brushfire Grill" barbecue area stands a baseball-themed ferris wheel. The stunning fountain above center field synchronizes music and light to spraying fountains of water.

SEATING LEVELS AND CAPACITIES

There are approximately 23,000 seats in the lower bowl of Comerica Park and 2,000 in the two suite levels. There are roughly 11,000 in the main upper deck. From just past first base to the right-field foul line there is a section with 4,000 seats that does not have a suite level. The upper deck in this level is approximately 15 feet lower and closer to the field than the main upper deck.

PREMIUM SEATING AREAS

Comerica Park features four premium seating areas. Located at the upper rows of the lower bowl, the Tiger Den resembles the fashionable boxes at old-time sporting venues with movable chairs. A private lounge is available for patrons. The first five rows of the upper bowl have been designated as club seats, and patrons have access to the Club Lounge. Another premium seating area is located in the lowest rows of the lower bowl, called On-Deck Circle seats. Additionally, there are two levels of suites, which includes several party suites that are available for individual game rental.

MOMENTS IN COMERICA PARK HISTORY

Comerica Park is entering its 13th season as the home of the Detroit Tigers. Despite such a short history, Comerica Park has seen many exciting moments that are part of the fabric of Detroit baseball history.

MIDSUMMER CLASSIC RETURNS TO MOTOWN

The first marquee Major League Baseball event to take place at Comerica Park was the 2005 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. It marked the fourth all-star game in Detroit and the first since 1971. The American League defeated the National League 7-5 behind home runs from Mark Teixeira and Miguel Tejada. In the home run derby, Bobby Abreu set a major league record by belting 24 home runs in the first round and 41 home runs over the course of the contest.

PLAYOFF BASEBALL COMES TO COMERICA PARK

After clinching the American League Wild Card during the regular season and opening the 2006 playoffs at Yankee Stadium, the first playoff game in the history of Comerica Park was played on October 6, 2006. The Tigers defeated the Yankees 6-0 and went on to win five of the six games held at Comerica Park during the 2006 playoffs.

MAGGLIO ORDONEZ BELTS HISTORIC HOME RUN TO SEND TIGERS TO THE FALL CLASSIC

Tigers right fielder Magglio Ordonez stepped to the plate in the bottom of the ninth inning with the score tied at three in Game Four of the 2006 American League Championship Series. He belted a Huston Street delivery into the Detroit sky for a game-ending three-run home run that propelled the Tigers to the club's first World Series berth since 1984.

WORLD SERIES BASEBALL AT COMERICA PARK

The Tigers hosted the St. Louis Cardinals in Game One of the 2006 World Series on October 21, 2006. The Tigers lost Game One 7-2, but bounced back to defeat the Cardinals 3-1 in Game Two to record the first World Series victory in Comerica Park history.

VERLANDER FIRES SIXTH NO-HITTER IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

Justin Verlander fired the sixth no-hitter in franchise history on June 12, 2007 in a 4-0 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the first no-hitter at Comerica Park and the first no-hitter by a Tigers pitcher in Detroit since Virgil Trucks on May 15, 1952 at Briggs Stadium.

WILLIE HORTON SCHOLARSHIP

The Tigers established the Willie Horton Scholarship in 2001, in honor of Willie Horton's accomplishments and contributions to the greater Detroit community. This scholarship, funded by the Detroit Tigers Foundation, is awarded annually to a graduating senior from Northwestern High School in Detroit, Horton's alma mater.

EDUCATION AND SAFETY

The Detroit Tigers are proud to maintain a wide variety of programs focused on education and safety including Safety Patrol Day, Aquafina Perfect Attendance Day, Gang Resistance Education and Training Day (G.R.E.A.T.) and the Jackie Robinson Memorial Art, Essay and Poetry Contest. Safety Patrol Day, a program in existence for nearly 60 years, awards Tigers tickets to students for their service to their classmates, while Perfect Attendance Day awards Tigers tickets to area middle school students with perfect attendance during a school semester. The G.R.E.A.T. program rewards students in the spring for setting goals and understanding how gangs and youth violence negatively impact their lives. The Detroit Tigers Jackie Robinson Art, Essay and Poetry Contest invites middle and high school students to create original poems, essays and works of art to honor the athlete who broke the barrier of segregation in baseball, and a social activist who fought for equal opportunities beyond the playing field.

PLAYER PARTICIPATION

The Player Participation program is the cornerstone of the Tigers community involvement. Each season, hundreds of charitable organizations benefit from the dedication of Tigers players and coaches. Tigers community participation includes reading with students, visiting youth groups, conducting baseball clinics, visiting hospitals, serving as chairmen or spokesmen for charitable organizations, autographing memorabilia for fundraising events and much more.

TIGERS WINTER CARAVAN

For a few special days each January, you won't find the Detroit Tigers at Comerica Park. The team, along with coaches, broadcasters and front office staff hit the road for the Tigers Winter Caravan to visit fans across the state of Michigan. The Tigers Winter Caravan is a series of community events designed to reconnect Tigers baseball with its local fan base. Simultaneously, the Tigers Winter Caravan aims to support numerous communities and Michigan-based organizations by linking Detroit Tigers players, coaches, broadcasters and members of the front office to charitable and noteworthy causes.

TIGERS DREAMS COME TRUE

Throughout the season, the Tigers grant the wishes of Tigers fans of all ages with special needs or life-threatening illness by inviting these fans and their families to watch batting practice from the field and meet a Tigers player or coach.

TIGERS WIVES

The Tigers Wives are not afraid to roll up their sleeves and make a real difference in our community. From participating in the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure to serving lunch on the Salvation Army Bed and Bread Truck to brightening the days of patients being treated at local pediatric hospitals, the Tigers Wives enjoy supporting the community that cheers for their husbands.
